FORTUNE TELLER EARNS APPLAUSE

Grace Orr Meyers Was Very Pleasing in Her Dual Roles.

"The Fortune Teller," with its pretty music and bright lights, was produced at the Academy last night and proved a most pleasing attraction. Its fame, as gained in the original production, did not serve to draw a very large audience to the Academy, partly due, perhaps, to the belief that anything but the usual as a base imitation not to be accepted.

However, Miss Grace Orr Meyers proved herself fully capable of filling the dual role of Music and Fortune Teller, and did so in a manner that quite won her audience. Miss Meyers has a most attractive personality, and though very nervous, she was a splendid figure, she launches any such thought in the minds of her audience when she puckers her lips and points her fingers, and she is so convincing as to take every one into her confidence. She has a fascinating way of making friends with the audience, without casting a glance at the stage, and she is a direct hit for their approval. Her voice is not of great power, but is quite sufficient in volume to carry her safely through the score.

The comedy work of three comedians—Henry Turpin, James McElhenn and Hugh Cameron—was quite successful. The comedy work was in the splendid humor. James McElhenn in the first act rather impressed one that he was going to be very tiresome. A rather good comedy, but in the two acts following he struck a happier vein in his humor and succeeded in his purpose very well. He was the only one of the comedians who was not a failure. He was a success, and his humor was a success, and his humor was a success.

Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys." The attraction at the Academy this afternoon and evening will be the annual visit of Gus Hoyt's singing and dancing comedians in Hoyt's standard farce comedy, "A Bunch of Keys." A comedy, but in the two acts following he struck a happier vein in his humor and succeeded in his purpose very well. He was the only one of the comedians who was not a failure. He was a success, and his humor was a success, and his humor was a success.

"Legend of the Catskills." The legend of the Catskills, which was the subject of the Academy this afternoon and evening, was a very interesting and amusing story. It was a story of a man who had been killed by a bear, and his body was found in a cave. The story was told in a very interesting and amusing way, and it was a very successful attraction.

Murray and Mack. An entertainment complete with originality and headed by comedians who are famous as originalists and creators, the local farce, Murray and Mack, being given this week at the Bijou.

"Around the Town," while a farce comedy, cannot be classed with the farce comedy. It is a story of a man who has been killed by a bear, and his body was found in a cave. The story was told in a very interesting and amusing way, and it was a very successful attraction.

Buster Brown Coming. Critics assure that one of the most enjoyable features about "Buster Brown," Melville B. Raymond's new musical comedy creation, which comes to the Academy this week, is that it is one of the few musical comedies which can be enjoyed no matter how often you see it, as the music is never overdone, and the costumes so pleasing to the eye, that one does not tire with all its gorgeousness.

Large Sum for Missions. Hon. J. Curtis Bush, of Mobile, Ala., has recently given to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention $500. This is the largest sum ever given by any one person to the board. The sum is to be used in the establishment of the North China Training School at Hwangchow, China.

All Liked Dr. Witherspoon. Rev. Dr. J. W. Witherspoon, who has been visiting in the city, was very popular. He was a very interesting and amusing speaker, and he was a very successful attraction.

Little Tobacco Selling. Conditions on the Tobacco Exchange yesterday were very dull and quiet. There were no sales of tobacco, and the prices ranged from $3 to $40.

Out the Demon. A Tussle With Coffee. There is something funny about the demon of the coffee. It is a demon that is very difficult to get rid of, and it is a demon that is very dangerous. It is a demon that is very difficult to get rid of, and it is a demon that is very dangerous.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE Young Man Goes to a Jury to Face Young Woman as Accuser.

Upon the charge of attempted criminal assault upon Miss Cora Crittenden, youthful daughter of Mr. David H. Crittenden, of Henrico county, William W. Patterson, a young white man, was given a hearing before Judge Lewis in the county yesterday and held for the grand jury. Bail in the sum of $1,500 was required.

The crime with which the young man is charged, is alleged to have been committed more than a year ago. The delay in the arrest had been caused by the fact that the father of the girl and the father of the boy had tacitly agreed that provided the young man left the county, nothing would be done with him. Recently he returned, and the warrant was served on him by Constable Samuels, who had known of the case for months.

On the witness stand yesterday morning, Miss Crittenden told how the prisoner had come to her home and dragged her into the yard and attempted the assault. She was positive in her statements, and on cross-examination she was unshaken. Miss Crittenden is just sixteen years of age and unusually pretty.

Pain in the Head

Is a danger signal, warning you that the brain nerves are exhausted—irritated, and are undergoing an unnatural strain. Frequent and prolonged attacks of pain weaken the generative power of the nerve cells of the brain, and lead to loss of memory, melancholy, spasms, epilepsy, and frequently insanity.

When the brain nerves are weakened they are unable to supply sufficient nerve force to the nerves that control the lungs, heart, stomach and other organs, and these organs are thus robbed of energy, and unable to meet the demands upon them, and they get sick.

Stop the head pains with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the influence upon your general health will be greater than you can realize.

"I want to tell you how thankful I am for Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. MR. MEYERS NO LONGER MEMBER

Could Not Accept Free Railroad Passes and Serve on Council Committee.

MR. MEREDITH ALSO RESIGNS Two New Members for James River Committee to Be Chosen.

The Committee on Improvement of James River held its monthly meeting last night in the City Hall. The opinion of the city attorney as to the prohibition against members of the committee accepting free transportation whether members from the Chamber of Commerce or Council, and the letter of Mr. E. T. D. Myers, Jr., in which he stated that he was not aware of the prohibition applying to him as a member, and that he expects to continue to accept free transportation, which were considered at the last meeting and laid upon the table in the absence from the meeting of Mr. Myers.

Mr. Myers was taken up by Mr. Myers and City Attorney Pollard, by action of the committee at its last meeting were invited to be present at the meeting last night. Mr. Myers was present, but Mr. Myers was absent, and it was thought he was not in town. The question was taken up and Mr. Pollard clearly explained that the law applied to all municipal officers, and in this case operated against Mr. Myers. If he continued to accept free passes, and likewise a violation by the railroad issuing passes to him while a member of the committee. The city attorney said the act of Mr. Myers in accepting free passes vacated his position on the committee by the conditions laid down in the new Constitution. Expressions of regret were heard from several of the members as to the effect of the law in its operation against Mr. Myers and the loss to the committee by reason of his place being declared vacant, but it was decided to notify the Chamber of Commerce of this vacancy, and also the resignation of Mr. Wyndham R. Meredith submitted some time ago and request the nomination of two citizens to the City Council in joint session to fill the two vacant places.

The polls and bills were ordered to be paid, and other matters of a routine nature disposed of. The Committee on Local Assessments held a lengthy meeting in the City Hall last night at 8 o'clock to take action against property owners for public improvement matters. A great many cases were disposed of and in the main the decisions of the committee were received without appeal therefrom.

HOLIDAYS ARE NEARLY ENDED

White Schools Open on September 15; Colored Schools, September 18.

HAVE NINETEEN BUILDINGS. Fine Programme Arranged for Chimborazo School—Mayor McCarthy to Speak.

Vacation days are nearly over, and the day is drawing high when the children of Richmond must again take up their books and wend merrily or reluctantly their way to school.

The schools will open their doors to home students on Friday morning, September 15th. Promptly at 9 o'clock on that morning enrollment of the students will begin. On Monday morning, September 18th, the enrollment of new students will be commenced. The colored schools will be opened on Monday, when the former will be enrolled the next day.

There is every indication of a busy and prosperous season. One new building has been added to the list, and now there are nineteen buildings set aside for the education of the young.

Chimborazo School will be opened to the public on September 15th at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. A fine programme has been arranged, and the assembly room, Mayor McCarthy and the principal-elect, Mr. R. E. Blanton, will deliver addresses. The public, and especially the patrons of the school, are cordially invited to attend. This school fills a long-felt want in the community in which it is located, and the pupils of the East End will be accommodated with all the facilities of modern school buildings and methods. It has been given to it by the Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

Mr. R. E. Blanton is a Virginian and is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College. He has much teaching experience in educational work, both in high schools and in colleges, and for thirteen years was assistant professor of Greek and Latin in the State College of Kentucky.

This will be the department of science and manual training, and it will be under the direction of an experienced teacher.

Reports from the district schools indicate that a larger number of pupils than ever before will enter the High School, and many pupils at least one more teacher, and probably two, will be added to the High School's force.

Superintendent of Street Cleaning Tells of His Work. The annual report of Superintendent Cohn, of the Street Cleaning Department, for the year 1904 has just been issued. Mr. Cohn gives an interesting and detailed account of the progress of his work, and the cost of operating his department.

On the subject of uniforms for his men, Mr. Cohn says: "In my previous report I called attention to the necessity of having the employees of the department wear uniforms; and at that time expressed the opinion that it would help to bring the department up to a standard with other cities, and that they would appreciate and regard the men in a better light than heretofore. I have no reason for changing that opinion, fully believing it will have the desired effect."

"Wherever the uniform has been adopted it has met with commendation, and has served to illustrate the fact that a neat uniform is preferable to a varied assortment of old clothing."

"It affords me great satisfaction to state that after hard work for about three months, the committee has adopted a resolution requiring the employees of the department to wear a uniform of such color and style most suitable for their work, the cost of the uniform being comparatively small, and early in the year of 1905, we hope to see the men looked upon with that same respect as our uniformed departments."

Crop Conditions Summarized. The weather crop bulletin of the Weather Bureau at Washington sends out the following report for Virginia and North Carolina, under date of September 4th: "Virginia: Richmond—Corn maturing rapidly; cutting heavy; yield excellent; fodder pulling largely locally; tobacco harvest well advanced, yield fair to good; bright grades curing well, but chaffy locally; dark tobacco good; pastures fine; potatoes excellent; second crop Irish potatoes being planted; harvesting apples progressing, crop small, except locally; fall plowing advanced."

North Carolina: Raleigh—Weather generally dry and cool, favorable for saving fodder; fewer reports of shedding and rust of cotton received; picking under way, yield less than average; tobacco all cured in east, and under way in west; portions, color and quality good, lacks body, yield below average; corn about matured, promises good yield in west, poorer in east; fruit failure, except grapes, which are plentiful; minor crops doing well."

Richmond Academy to Open. Richmond Academy will open its fourth session September 18th, under the most encouraging auspices. It has yet been as Dr. Fausch's duties at Richmond College keep him from giving his entire attention to the business of the school, Mr. W. L. Prince has been elected to the place.

Gans-Rady Company

Will Address RAILROAD CLUB

Mr. J. A. Gibson Selected for Principal Speaker at This Evening's Meeting.

CHEAP RATES FOR FARMERS Railroads Offering Inducements to Outsiders to Attend National Congress.

Mr. J. A. Gibson, chief draftsman for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, and who is a son of Detective Gibson, of Richmond, will deliver an address before the Richmond Railroad Club at the Richmond Hotel to-night. His address will deal with the recent improvements in developing and maintaining the heavy and high pressure engines now used. It will be a practical talk to men who are engaged in railroad work and who thoroughly understand the mechanism of an engine or a boiler.

Mr. Gibson is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and has made rapid strides in mechanical engineering since leaving school. Entering the service of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac in an unimportant position, he has by his attention to business, and by faithful services rendered, risen to the high position of chief draftsman of the large corporation. Better things are in store for him from the railroad that he has served so faithfully. In the Railroad Club, which meets to-night in this city, Mr. Gibson is a valued member and has done much towards stimulating the members to activity.

Nothing has attracted the attention of Mr. Gibson, so he says, more than the recent invention of the German scientist, Dr. Goldschmidt. This invention is the welding process, commonly known as the "thermit" process. By this means time and money are saved, and it will be principally upon this subject that the young Richmonder will speak this evening.

For Farmers' Convention. Announcement is made by the passenger associations east of St. Louis, that the railroad companies operating in that territory will offer much reduced rates to the Farmers' National Congress, which meets in Richmond September 12-22, 1905. Indications point to a number of farmers from the city and county, and it is hoped that hundreds will take advantage of the cheap excursion rates offered and attend the convention.

Southern Railway Earnings. Estimated earnings of the Southern Railway system during the fourth week in August are as follows: This year, $1,277,069; last year, $1,216,761; increase, $60,274. Including the St. Louis lines, the estimate is as follows: This year, $1,285,375; last year, $1,228,828; increase, $56,547.

Officers Elected. W. C. T. U. Meets—Next Convention in December. At the bi-county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Tuesday, the following officers for the year were elected: President, Mrs. J. T. Johnson; recording secretary, Miss Julia Hudgins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bickers; treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Jones. Miss Anne Emerick, of the new Y of Highgate Springs, was elected county "Y" secretary.

The important work of the union was assigned to a special committee, composed of Messrs. D. M. Burgess, Joseph Bickers, Wood and Miss Richardson. In the morning session non-alcoholic medication was discussed, and the Second Thoma's Bayley, West Point, who represents the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the School of Methods in the interest of scientific temperance instruction, gave a most interesting report of her work.

In the afternoon session the executive committee appointed the following county superintendents: Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. G. C. Carpenter; non-alcoholic medication, Miss Ada Richardson; press work, Mrs. D. M. Burgess; medical contests, Mrs. W. D. Gay; railroad department, Mrs. W. M. Bickers; almshouse, Mrs. W. V. Morgan; purity, Miss Alice Carson; Sunday school work, Miss Bessie Hechler; red letter days, Miss Pearl Vinton; unfettered wine, Mrs. Ella V. Wood.

The next meeting of the convention will be held in December with East End Union.

WIFE REFUSES TO LOOK AT HUSBAND

Mrs. R. K. Chittenden Whirls on Her Heels When Chittenden Enters Court.

The case of C. R. Chittenden, who Tuesday morning attempted to shoot his wife, was continued in Police Court yesterday morning until Saturday, at the request of Mr. A. H. Sands, counsel for the prisoner. The accused wished to have another witness summoned, and this person could not be in court yesterday morning. Chittenden was bailed in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance Saturday.

When the case is called for hearing, the court-room will be cleared of all save the officials and newspaper men. Justice Crutchfield said as much yesterday when it was thought that the case would be gone into.

Mrs. Fannie Chittenden, wife of the accused, was in court early. She remained in the private office until her name was called. That she was living yesterday is due to the poor marksmanship of her husband, who fired twice at her with a shotgun. She chatted with Commonwealth's Attorney Richardson and spoke to Mr. Sands, who is defending her husband. There was a delay for Mr. Chittenden, who was in the corridor and did not hear his name called. On either side of the aisle leading to the bar he met friends and was shaking hands with them all as he walked along.

Mrs. Chittenden was standing with her face toward the entrance to the bar when her husband came through the little gate. At the sight of the man who had tried to end her life she turned suddenly, facing the opposite direction. Blood rushed to her face, and for the first time she showed unmistakable traces of nervousness.

Mrs. Chittenden was dressed in a white shirt waist and black skirt. To Mr. Richardson Mrs. Chittenden said that her husband had threatened to enter her home on Tuesday, her husband, who was drinking with another man in the house, told her to stay out, and threatened to shoot her if she entered.

YOUNG MAN'S SUICIDE. W. A. Barbee, of East Durham, Kills Himself at Raleigh. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., September 6.—Late this afternoon a handsome man, aged thirty-five, walked into the Yarbrough House, registered as W. A. Barbee, of East Durham, was assigned to a room. He returned in a few minutes to the office and gave the clerk $100 to keep for him. He had evidently been drinking hard and did not know how much money he had. Barbee returned to his room and two shots were heard.

The clerk found Barbee's first shot had entered the right temple and killed him instantly. Both were fired while standing in front of a large mirror. The coroner found in a pocket a slip of paper bearing the words "Take me back to Durham."

The suicide was a son of Magistrate G. A. Barbee, of Durham, had been employed in the office and gave the clerk $100 to keep for him. He had evidently been drinking hard and did not know how much money he had. Barbee returned to his room and two shots were heard.

Propped His "H's". Sam Leftwich, a white man, whose home was in "Hogland," was given sixty days in which to get acquainted with America. He was taken from the window of the Henrico county jail by "Squire Anle" yesterday morning. The man who dropped it, it is said, landed him in the free pass route in the first. He was caught, and hence the imprisonment.

Dr. E. W. Smith Called. Rev. Dr. Ebert Wilson Smith, who is well known in this city and whose home has been in Greensboro, N. C., has been called to the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian Church in Louisville, Ky. Dr. Smith is a graduate of Davidson College and of the Union Theological Seminary.
